- 2. Identify functional human anatomy, physiology and kinesiology relative to mechanisms of injury.
- 3. Describe relationships, predisposing risk factors and other physical activity related injuries (e.g., postural anomalies, previous injury, age, environmental conditions, nutritional and psychosocial concerns etc.).
- 4. Identify signs and symptoms of lower extremity and thoracic injuries.
- 5. Identify and use appropriate medical terminology and medical documentation to record injuries and illnesses (e.g., history and examination findings, progress notes, and others).
- 6. Describe specific sport and/or position requirements relative to the return of an injured athlete to activity following injury.
- 7. Develop a research project (to include but not limited to case study, clinical research project, literature review) for an athletic training-related topic.

EVALUATION

Students will be evaluated on content standards (knowledge gained) and performance (demonstration of the content). Content standards will be assessed via written quizzes, written assignments, and exams. Performance will be assessed through completion of class activities.

Class Participation and Quizzes:

Attending, being prompt, and active participation are important components of this course. Therefore, students will earn credit for attending and participating in class. Throughout the semester you will have several quizzes and class discussions based on assigned course readings and materials.

Note: Each student will be permitted one unexcused absence and one late arrival. Additional unexcused absences and late arrivals will result in a 10 point and 5 point reduction in the student's daily attendance grade, respectively. The unexcused student is subject to the makeup work policy.

Written Examinations:

Four examinations will be administered. These examinations may consist of multiple choice, true/false, short answer, matching, and fill in the blank type questions. Each of the examinations will test the material covered in the assigned readings and during the prior class meetings. The final examination is cumulative.

Article Reviews:

Five article summaries will be written regarding an injury to the lower extremity or thorax from a peer-reviewed journal. The articles will be provided via Blackboard throughout the semester. Reports must contain a brief summary of the major content and components of the article. Please comment on the author's completeness and important items that you feel were omitted. This assignment is designed to introduce you to your professional journal as well as the formats and prose of different professional articles. The report is to be typed, 1.5-spaced and placed in the digital drop-box on Blackboard by the specified due date and time. Your report must be well written and concise (one page maximum).

Case Study Report:

For this assignment, you will be required to write your own case study report. You choose your own case and from this semester's experiences. The case study must involve the lower extremity, spine or thorax (unless approved by instructor). The format of this paper will coincide with AMA guidelines. This assignment should be of a length, quality, and style that emulates a case study article found a peer-review scholarly medical journal (for example: Journal of Athletic Training, Athletic Therapy Today, American Journal of Sports Medicine, Medicine and Science in Sports and Exercise, Journal of Sports Rehabilitation, JAMA). A typed written proposal (one paragraph maximum) is to be submitted via Blackboard on Thursday, October 13th by the beginning of class. Finally, the completed project it must be submitted via Blackboard no later than Thursday, December 1st at the beginning of class [9:00am].

Medical Documentation:

For this assignment, you will be required to write two evaluations SOAP Notes in a medically acceptable format relating to conditions of the lower extremity and thorax. One of these SOAP Notes will be of an acute condition, and the other will be of a chronic condition. You will choose the cases from this semester's clinical experiences. First SOAP Note is due on Tuesday, September 20th at the beginning of class. The second SOAP note is due on Thursday, November 17th at the beginning of class. All submissions are to be made via Blackboard.
