
John F. Byrne

Contact Information

Send email to jbyrne4@gmu.edu

George Mason University, Prince William Campus
Bull Run Hall Suite 220
10900 University Blvd
MS 4E5
Manassas, VA 20110

JD, American University
Adjunct Professor
Tourism and Events Management

Profile

John Byrne specializes in global tourism and in the management national parks. He has a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering and a Master of Science in Environmental Engineering from Drexel University, and a Juris Doctor from American University.

Mr. Byrne had a career with the National Park Service. He served as a team member and as team captain for the development of management plans for various park areas in the United States, and served as Assistant Superintendent of Yosemite National Park, superintendent of a number of park units in the Washington, DC area and as Manager of the Appalachian National Scenic Trail. Mr. Byrne also served in India, Sri Lanka, Jamaica, Jordan, Egypt and Bulgaria where he provided professional services in the management of parks and protected areas.

Campus Affiliations

School of Recreation, Health and Tourism
Tourism and Events Management

Courses Taught

Introduction to Travel and Tourism (TOUR 200)
Global Understanding of Travel and Tourism (TOUR 210)
Human Behavior in the Natural Environment (PRLS 402)
Administration of Health, Recreation and Tourism organizations (PRLS 410)