Profile

Ms. Hill has been an adjunct instructor since 2012. She graduated from George Mason University in 2008 and has the unique experience of being part of one of the first students to participate in the Recreation, Health and Tourism program during its infancy. She received her Masters' of Tourism Administration in 2011 from George Washington University. The GW program is entirely online and is a large contributor to her in-depth understanding and execution of teaching online courses.

Ms. Hill worked for six years with the City of Manassas in Old Town Manassas as their special Event Coordinator. In 2006 she moved on to a private community of 4,000 homes in Dumfries, VA and worked for six years as their Special Events and Community Services Manager. With the anticipation of the birth of her twin daughters, in 2012 Ms. Hill decided to leave the Dumfries community and work solely from home as an adjunct instructor, and continues to support the TEM program through distance education.
