COURSE DESCRIPTION

Explores the principles of personal selling within hospitality sectors. Reviews the nature of buyers and sellers, situational selling, the sales process and relationship management. This course will also conduct a “real world” project for multiple Marriott Hotels revolving around marketing and advertising on various platforms.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

On completion of this course, students should be able to:

- 1) Identify characteristics of buyers and sellers;
- 2) Demonstrate an understanding of sales prospecting;
- 3) Articulate distinctions in sales approaches;
- 4) Demonstrate the personal sales process;
- 5) Prepare a personal sales plan; and
- 6) Develop personal sales tools

NATURE OF COURSE DELIVERY:

This course will be part classroom lecture and part on-line learning

Teaching and learning will be done using the combination of the traditional face-to-face instruction formats, web videos, field trip, and hands-on group and individual projects and on-line learning. Students are required to spend time studying individually, but are encouraged to work together.

STUDENT MAJOR RESPONSIBILITIES:

- a. Students are responsible for attending all classes, taking notes, and obtaining other materials provided by the instructor, taking tests, conducting a team presentation and completing assignments as scheduled by the instructor.
- b. Students are responsible for monitoring their grades and any changes of syllabus communicated by the instructor.
- c. Behaviors that disrupt other students’ learning are not acceptable (e.g., arriving consistently late for class; cell phone use, reading non-course related materials, eating during class, or social conversation during class).

COURSE CONTENT

Class will be a combination of instructor lectures, interactive class discussions, in-class activities and virtual learning. You will be required to complete assigned readings prior to class sessions during which those readings are examined. Assignments are due in class at the beginning of class of the specified due date, unless they are submitted to me via email by request.

REQUIRED READINGS

Marketing for Hospitality and Tourism (6th edition)

CLASS ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION:

Attendance will be taken at the end of each class meeting. It is your responsibility to sign the class attendance sheet, even if you are late to class. My record of attendance is official and final. I will take attendance for all class meetings, not including exam dates or other dates noted on the schedule.

You will have two freebies (no questions asked). These two excused absences CANNOT be used on the following days: exam reviews and exams, quizzes, group project work sessions, your presentations (including others' group project presentations), and hotel site visit. After that, 10 points of the 50 points for attendance and participation will be lost for each day missed. Each missing class will result in 10 points off of your total grade points after your loss of all 50 points of your attendance and participation grade. Also be advised that beyond any specific grading point penalties for unexcused absence or habitual tardiness, the instructor may issue "F" grade if, after written warning, the student's absence or tardiness continues at a level of that constitutes "non-participation".

The only acceptable reasons for missing class are the same as those of the exam (so, use freebies wisely 😊). Students missing class due to severe illness and family emergency should contact the instructor ahead of time and provide him with verification document. No points can be made up for an absence. If a student comes to a class more than 15 minutes late, s/he will be considered absent for that class. In the case that a student comes to a class less than 15 minutes late but shows a consistent pattern of being late (3 and more times), being late 3 times will equal one absence

Participation in class discussion is very important. Please prepare for class by reading the assigned material as well as the cases. Also, if anyone has or is currently working in the Hospitality Industry I would ask that you share your experiences. We will also have a weekly discussion on blackboard, it is required that you make a minimum of one contribution per week. Your grade for class participation will be based on my judgment of the consistency with which you participate constructively and show leadership in class discussion and activity. Please note that class discussion includes interacting with your classmates.
